WORTHY OF ATTENTION .- On Monday night a communication from the commissioners of the asylum and poor house was transferred to the Board of Aldermen relative to making the asylum and workhouse remunerative by com-pelling the inmates to labor.

The commissioners say that in the law made for the government of the asylum it is a fundamental principle that employment must be provided for all persons in the asylum capable of any species of labor. In order to carry out the law it is requisite that some one of the commissioners shall be authorized to apply funds appropriated by the corporation for the asylum to purchase raw materials, machinery, tools and implements, and to dispose of all articles made up, wove, spun, knitted, picked, or otherwise prepared. The commissioners believe this could be done with much advantage to the corpora-

It is 17 years since the law was passed, and it is in effect a dead letter, when if properly carried out $50,000 might have been realized by workhouse labor. The name of workhouse as applied to the institution is a misnomer and the inmates spend their time in idleness, plotting mischief. To carry out the recommendations of the Commissioners it will be requisite to have one of them designated to give his whole time to the superintendence of the work, with such additional remuneration as would be proper, and there is no doubt that the Corporation would be largely a gamer by the arrangement. Not only could a large sum be gained by the labor, but the prisoners themselves would be benefitted by being kept out of idleness. Moreover, it would have the effect to keep away a host of lazzareni who hate work and patronize the almshouse only so long as they can be boarded and lodged in idleness. This swarm of vagrants have been a terrible burden upon the Corporation, and by putting them to hard work as fast as they reach the almshouse they would heareafter give that institution a wide

The communication of the Commissioners was referred to the asylum committee, which will, we trust, give the matter early attention.

WAR DEPARTMENT RIFLES .- The above is the title of the regiment composed of clerks from the different bureaus of the War Department. The regiment is composed of good material, and will undoubtedly make a fine appearance, and be of great service to the Government in case of an emergency. The men have been armed, uniformed and equipped in all respects similar to a regiment in the fieldthe uniform consisting of a dark blue blouse, light blue pants (like those of the Veteran Reserve Corps), and army regulation caps. The officers have been commissioned by the Secretary of War, but services rendered under the appointment are to be without pay or rations, and the regiment has been organized under the immediate supervision of Brigadier General James B. Fry, Provost Marshal General U.S. A. The men composing this regiment have been sworn into the service of the United States for the term of three years, and it is understood that the Secretary of War has ordered the erection of a suitable building to be used as an armory. The following are the officers :- Capt. Sam'l

Dana, 17th U.S. infantry, Colonel; Captain Franklin H. Barroll, 2d U.S. infantry, Lieut. Colonel; Capt. Geo. E. Scott, V. R. C., Major; Surgeon J. H. Baxter, U. S. Vols., Surgeon; Lieut. Alex. A. C. Klaucke, Adjutant; Lieut. C. A. McLaughlin, Quartermaster. Captains.—Co. A. B. W. Doud: Co. B. W. Doud; Co. B. H. E. Scott; Co. C, N. T. Hartshorn; Co. D, H. Douglass; Co. E, J. H. Edson; Co. F, L. L. James; Co. G. R. A. Hills; Co. H, G. C. Putnam; Co. I, J. T. Usher; Co. K. A. B. Butts. The regiment drills for one hour every aftermoon, Sundays excepted, in the grounds between the War Department and the President's

LARCENY CASES .- On Wednesday evening, Henson Jackson, colored, complained at the tonth precinct station that he had been robbed of a five dollar bill by W. White and George Brent, colored, and they were arrested by officer Ashton, who took them before Justice Boswell. It appeared that the three were in a house where the accused were playing cards. and during the game Brent stated that he had lost $5. White proposed that all should be searched, and several submitted to the operation, but Jackson refused, at the same time laying a five dollar note on the table, which Brent pocketed. The Justice held Brent to security for court and dismissed White.

On the same evening, a colored boy (Daniel Buckley) was arrested by officer Barker for robbing the money drawer of Wm. Fagan of $7.55, and he was taken before Justice Boswell, who committed him to jail for court. The money had been carried to a stable and hid in the hay, where it was found by Mr. Fagan.

THE MODE OF CANINE SLAUGHTER .- The use of strychnine by the police in the killing of dogs found running at large without being muzz'ed, as required by law, has been prohibited by the city authorities. The Superintendent of Police has therefore detailed two men in each ward to shoot such animals. The order was issued Tuesday, and on that night the Fourth Ward officers tested their skill in the use of fowling-pieces by shooting twentyfive dogs. If the men detailed in other preducts are as successful as the Fourth Ward gunners, the cartmen employed by the Corporation will be kept busy for a few days. From the number of dogs yet running at large unmuzzled, it would appear that their owners are rather anxious than otherwise to get rid of their worthless curs.

THE RIOT CASE.—Yesterday morning, while the trial of the parties charged with participating in the riot, near Branch Hospital, on Thursday, in which Robert Stroupe, 6th Pennsylvania cavalry, was killed, was progressing before Justice Cull, the military authorities in a measure abated the nuisance, by pulling down two of the shanties near the scene of riot, one of which was occupied by Mrs. Ann Subsequently officers Shelton, Grapt, and Brennan arrested Mrs. Thompson and Richard O'Kieff, the former for selling without license and to soldiers, and the last named for selling to soldiers, and they were both fined $20 each by Justice Cull.

Dog Shooting .- Officer Walling and Shelton have been detailed to destroy dogs at large in the Sixth Ward, and are rapidly exterminating the canines who have not the wire muzzle over their smellers. On Wednesday afternoon, in the prosecution of their business, they shot a dog on the corner of East Capitol and eth streets. A Capt. Cambell here abused the officers for the act, and while so engaged, his dog showed itself on the street, and being unmuzzled, was also shot, and this enraged the Captain up to the boiling point, and he became so disorderly that he was arrested and taken before Justice Cull, who fined him $2.50, and explained the law on the subject.

RECRUITING AT THE NAVY-YARD.—The officers at the Navy-Yard are using more caution in shipping men for the Navy, and consequently the number accepted is smaller than formerly; nevertheless, the average number per day is about twelve accepted. There is but one clerk employed in shipping men, and from the number offering he finds it almost impossible to attend to all. At present ablebodied men are received as substitutes, but boys are only taken as volunteers. During the last two or three weeks over 200 have been shipped.

Assaulted .- Thursday afternoon, as Henry Dutcher, a soldier, was passing up 4½ street, (Island) three other soldiers, N. H. Douglas, Barney Lynch and Wm. Hinkston, assaulted him. He resisted them until the arrival of Ocer Giberson, and with the assistance of Datcher, they were taken to the Tenth Precint Station, and sent from there to the Central Guardhouse
